

Colonel Abel as film narrator

Moscow, Nov. 14.—Colonel Rudolf Abel, aged 65, Russia's former spy in the United States, is the narrator of a new feature film about Soviet spies thwarting a mad Nazi scientist. He made his screen debut today at a special preview of the film, 'The Dead Season,' for Soviet journalists.

In a filmed interview, he said that while spying in the United States, he heard the same kind of "misanthropic thoughts" that were uttered by Nazi doctors during the war.—Reuter.
